

Dear Customer

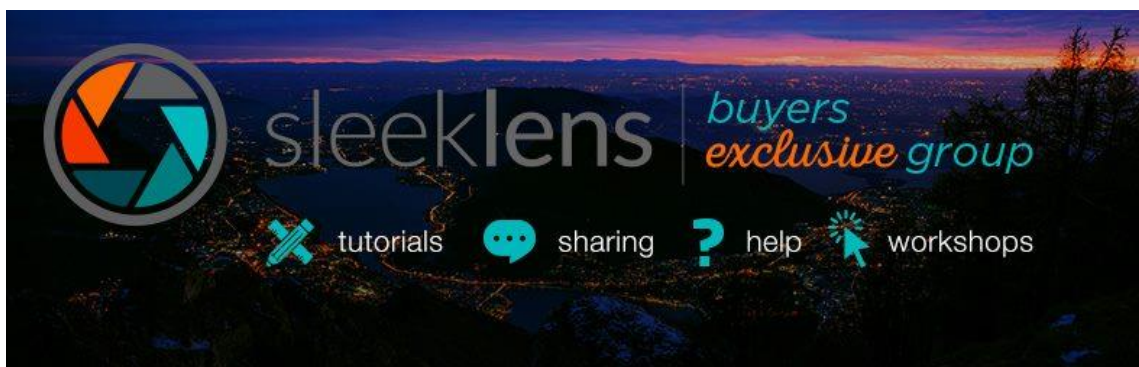

Thank you for buying our Lightroom Presets!

Here is how to install your Lightroom Presets

Watch our video guide here covering both MAC and PC:

Here at Sleeklens we want to make sure you are completely satisfied with your presets and so we created this Facebook group to help you out:

In this group you can ask any questions related to your product or Lightroom in general. It allows you to fully explore your presets and also get help from other experienced users. We have admins that will also help you out with any questions you might have.

it is a newly started group so we hope you will join and help it grow. We have tons of cool giveaways, tutorials and guides planned for you.

You can join it right here:

Thank you for buying our stuff and welcome to the Members Club!

All the best,

The Creators of Sleeklens.com
